

Here's a Great Offer

Order one copy of Terry's new book at full price... get a 2nd copy free and then more additional copies at 1/2 price each!

Special Bonus-

Absolutely Free with your order for "How to Market and Sell Automotive and Transmission Service and Repair"... $SALES HELP SCREENS, the software program that will turn your computer into a sales training center. Not only will you learn from its 134 information screens, while talking to callers on the phone you can actually pop up the answers to every objection they have to bringing the vehicle in for diagnosis without first being given a price. Later, when you call back to close the sale you can pop up the answers to all of their price objections in real time so you won't have to negotiate away your profit to close the sale. When time permits you can sit down at the computer and use $Sales Help Screens as a training aid to brush up on the finer points of selling. This program normally sells for hundreds of dollars. Now one copy on CD is included free with your book order.
